CARE

CARE BADGES - CARE PROVIDERS CAN NOW ORDER FREE CARE BADGES FOR THEIR STAFF

The Department of Health and Social Care (DHSC) is providing CARE badges free of charge to staff employed across the adult social care sector to recognise their critical work, particularly during the COVID-19 outbreak.

Click HERE for more information.

USING THE CARE BRAND

DHSC has also issued guidance on using the CARE brand.

This includes downloadable logos and detailed brand guidelines explaining who can use the CARE identity and how it should be applied.

'LEARNING FROM EVENTS' - NEW DIGITAL LEARNING MODULE

Development opportunity for Managers and leaders in all social care settings. The digital module is free to access, and once completed £100 can be claimed back from the Workforce Development Fund (WDF).

See attached document in the Provider Zone for more details.

HSE has extended its programme of spot checks to include care homes.

A spot check is a phone call to review the measures being taken to minimise spread of coronavirus in the care home and to protect workers whilst they are caring for residents.

See attached document in the Provider Zone for more details.
