

NHSmail Benefits

- Secure and encrypted, meeting legal requirements for transferring confidential data

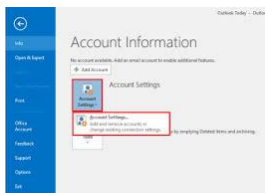

- Socially distant transfer of information between health and care organisations

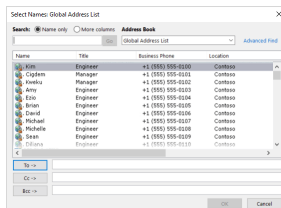

- Multiple users can access important information via a shared mailbox, especially important under current circumstances

- Add your NHSmail accounts to Outlook Desktop Application – all email accounts accessible through one platform

- Access to the People Finder and NHSmail Central Directory

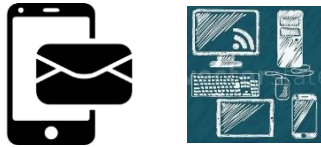

- Clear Audit Trail

- Reduction in administrative tasks

- Can be accessed on mobile devices, as well as desktops

- Access to Microsoft Teams – video consultations and video conversations

- NHS Discount and Blue Light Card using NHSmail verification

Home Care Benefits	Care Home Benefits
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Updated care packages from hospital • Discharge Teams including Discharge Summary • Confidently communicate with other health and care organisations • Two-way communication with GPs for dementia service users • Receipt of Covid-19 negative test results before admitting service users • Medication optimisation across care settings • District nurse communication 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enhanced communication with primary care • Two-way communication with all other health and care organisations • Improved and enhanced integrated care via MDTs (Multidisciplinary Teams) • Strongly recommended for proxy ordering of repeat prescriptions • E.g. DOLs - Deprivation of Liberty Standards • Quicker receipt of test results

