

Bradford District Credit Union

Bradford District Credit Union are #StillHereToHelp by supporting the council and voluntary sector with a range of resources to help you manage your money through the Covid-19 pandemic.

- 1) #StillHereToHelp Newsletter: is packed with information on managing your Credit Union account. If you have not received it, open the link Credit Union #StillHereToHelp Newsletter May 2020
- 2) 'Financial Wellbeing Portal': is packed with helpful information for members and non-members on boosting your finances and helping others during this difficult time. Open the link to their 'Money SOS' Covid-19 Information and Workshop Portal that collates financial help information for council and community.
- 3) Money SOS Webinar: Following a successful pilot, BDCU and People Can are hosting a COVID-19 Financial Wellbeing Webinar every Tuesday in June from 3pm to 4pm via Zoom. This 1-hour Zoom webinar will give people an overview of financial jargon, abuse and shock. It will also give details of financial wellbeing help and advice, e.g. mortgage payment holidays, energy bill tips, credit card assistance, avoiding scams and regular savings. The webinar will be delivered by Ian Brewer from Bradford District's Credit Union and Michelle Taylor from People Can. There are up to 6 places per session to allow for questions and the sharing of best practice. View dates and book a place on this Eventbrite link.
- 4) Your Saving Habit Starts Here: BDCU is a great place to save from your wages and you can apply for loans too – over 7500 members in Bradford increase their financial wellbeing so just go to Join BDCU to start your savings habit today or email credit.union@bdcu.co.uk