

Job for a person who has a learning disability

	The job is for a person who has a learning disability as a Learning Disability and Sport Co-Trainer
 Training Room	This job is about delivering workshops to teach people how to hold sports sessions for people who have a learning disability
	You will be helping sports coaches, volunteers and lots of other people to feel more confident about learning disability and sport.
	You will work with another co-trainer who does not have a learning disability.
	You will be working in the North, with most workshops in Bradford and St Helens areas
	You will need to be able to travel on your own to different places for the workshops.
	Your work hours will be based on how many workshops are booked. Each workshop is 3 hours long.
	To apply for the job, visit https://jobs.mencap.org.uk/vacancies/33244/relief-co-trainer.html or scan the QR code.